Hello, I am Kohlton Channell. I have been a member of 4H for 11 years with the Salt Fork do right 4H club where I have served 2 years as president and vice president for 1 year. I'm also the president of the Guernsey County 4H Jr. leaders and a standing member of the Ohio 4H Teen Leadership Council. I have served as a committee member of the community service committee. I started beekeeping 3 years ago as a 4H project and have been state qualified and received the outstanding award for being the Top 20% in the state. I have successfully completed cutouts, harvested honey and many other beekeeping task within my 3 years of beekeeping. I am running for the Crossroads Director to farther my involvement in Ohio beekeeping and to advocate younger people to start beekeeping.
